ARCHDEACON GEO. McKAY

The announcement that the Ven. Archadeacon Geo. McKay, for the past six years rector of St. Alban's Church in this town and a member of one of the oldest and projet prepeted pioneer families of this locality had determined, owing to continued illy hea'th, to remove to a milder climate and seek renewed health on the shores of the Pacific, was received wite feelings of sincere regret by the reverend gentleman's many friends in Prince Albert and throughout the district. Archideacon McKay's removal is a direct loss not only in the church circlas in which he moved while here, but to the community which leaves the time the community which leaves the time the community which are all the control of the community which leaves the first time especially, ill afford to lose such a talented minister of the Gospa'd as well as such a respected and useful citizen. A faithful minister, always eager and anxious to diffuse the knowledge concerning the great cause for which he worked, a true triend to the poor and a genial, honest and frank companion, made him a citizen of whom Prince Albert was gained by our loss and we have no doubt that the appreciation of Archibeaton McKay's merits will be as hearty in the coast city as it has been been said of her husband, may, with truth, be applied to her, and as the daughter of the late Bishop MacLean, the founder and protector during his life of the Church of England and her interests in this discrete McKay's ages expecially endeared to the residents of Prince Albert.
